LEADERS IN FOOD AND DRUG LAW TO BE HONORED AT 2022 FDLI ANNUAL CONFERENCE

[WASHINGTON, DC, April 18, 2022] The Food and Drug Law Institute (FDLI) has announced the honorees for its top accolades of the year, the FDLI Distinguished Service and Leadership Award and the Service to FDLI Award. Honorees will be recognized by their peers during the 2022 FDLI Annual Conference, June 14-15. This year's four award winners exemplify the dedication and leadership needed to promote public health, advance the food and drug law field, and ensure a robust and innovative regulatory environment.

The FDLI Distinguished Service and Leadership Award, established in 1993, recognizes individuals who have made notable contributions to the food and drug law community through their leadership. This year's honorees are Andrea Chamblee, Senior Counsel, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati; Jarilyn Dupont, Director of Regulatory Policy, FDA, Office of Policy, Legislation, and International Affairs, Office of the Commissioner; and Daniel Dwyer, Partner, Kleinfeld, Kaplan & Becker. The recipients are selected by a committee comprised of recent FDLI award recipients.

The Service to FDLI Award, established in 2017, honors FDLI members who have made exceptional contributions to FDLI, furthering FDLI's mission as a neutral convener to educate and spark innovative change. This year's recipient is Stuart Pape, Chair, FDA Practice, Polsinelli.

Traditionally the nation's largest gathering of the food and drug law community, FDLI's 2022 Annual Conference is excited to offer a flexible hybrid format to ensure all participants can attend virtually, in person, or a combination of both. This conference offers attendees the unique opportunity to hear directly from leading regulators, explore different viewpoints, and advance understanding in the field.
